

New care surveys with your next inspection

Look out for the new care surveys, coming with your next inspection

The new surveys replace the old care standards questionnaires. These new surveys will enable more people to tell us about their care and include packs of sentiment and response cards to help people give their views easily and simply

For guidance on how you can support people using the new surveys and card packs, search online for 'Care Inspectorate care surveys'