

- Roles: Senior Improvement Adviser (focus on dementia)
- Location: National, based in any Care Inspectorate office
- Salary: £48,453 - £53,502
- Hours: Full-time - 35 hours
- Contract: Permanent

About Us

The Care Inspectorate's role is to regulate and inspect care and support services and provide assurance and support improvement in the delivery of social work services, including those delivered in the context of health and social care integration. We conduct inspections of strategic partnerships jointly with a range of scrutiny partners. We have a significant role in providing assurance and protection for people who experience care, their families and carers and the wider public as well as supporting delivery partners to improve the quality of care for people in Scotland.

About the role

We are looking for a colleague with a strong background in dementia and a passion in quality improvement to join the Health and Social Care Improvement Team (HSCIT) on a permanent basis.

Reporting to the AHP Consultant but working closely with the Care Inspectorate's Chief Nurse, under the umbrella of Improvement Support and with close collaboration with Scrutiny and Assurance the post holder will provide specialist skills and knowledge in mental health and learning disabilities.

You will work internally to strengthen the capability and confidence of inspectors across inspection, complaints, and registration teams, in specific topic areas, supporting their learning and development and keeping the evidence base of practice current and develop resources to support the health and wellbeing of people experiencing care for use both internally and externally.

You will build and develop strategic partnerships across the health and social care landscape to support the delivery of health and wellbeing improvement advice and quality improvement support.

About you

Educated to degree level in a relevant field, registered with the aligned professional body together with the NES Scottish Improvement Leader (SciL) programme (or willingness to work towards), or an equivalent improvement qualification, you will have significant immediate influence in working across the health or social care sector. You will also work strategically across several organisations.

You will have significant specialist subject matter expertise and be able to combine it with an understanding of quality improvement theory/change management and its practical application in health and social care settings.

All new entrants will start on the grade minimum for the role however we have a generous benefits package.

To apply

You will find more information in the job profile and person specification.

For an informal discussion about the post, please contact Heather Edwards, AHP Consultant at Heather.Edwards@careinspectorate.gov.scot

If you believe you are a suitable candidate for this post, please download and complete an application form and submit it by email to recruitment@careinspectorate.gov.scot by no later than 8am on Monday 30 May 2022.

Interviews for this role will be taking place on Thursday 16 June 2022.