ST. ANDREW'S DAY CONCERT

30th November 5.30 pm

To all caregivers and homes,

We are officially inviting you to our free St Andrews Day online concert on Wednesday the 30th of November at 5.30pm.

This special event is part of Constella's Connecting Stars programme which offers care homes free weekly performances with some of the UK's most exciting professional musicians and dancers. Taking place over an optimized zoom set up, these performances are virtual and interactive affairs designed to entertain and enrich the lives of residents.

Our St. Andrew's Day concert will group event, featuring Scottish soprano Sophie Price and folk violinist Ellie Gaynard-Evans.

To receive the zoom link email us at Info@constella.org.uk. Then just hook your laptops up and join in the show!

Sophie Price

Sophie is a freelance soprano based in London. In 2014, Sophie gained a First Class Degree in Music at the University of Manchester, before going on to study at the Royal Northern College of Music. She sings regularly with Constella OperaBallet's Connecting Stars programme, and has previously worked with St Paul's Opera, British Youth Opera, Brent Opera & Art Song in Action, alongside extensive teaching work privately and in schools.

Ellie Gaynard-Evans

Ellie is a freelance violinist and violin teacher based in Manchester. She was classically trained and received a first class honours degree from the University of Manchester, but grew up surrounded by Celtic folk music. Ellie works with numerous orchestras, chamber ensembles and bands throughout the North West. She regularly plays for Irish folk sessions, ceilidhs and festivals alongside her classical engagements.

Hope to see you all there !
